AND

M/s _____, a firm registered with The Institute of Company Secretaries of India (ICSI) having its office situated at _____ and amongst one of its office at _____ (herein after called ‘Firm’) which expression shall, unless it be repugnant to the meaning or context thereof, be deemed to mean and include its successors and permitted assigns).

_____ Firm and the Bank shall hereinafter jointly be referred to as “Parties” and individually as a “Party”.

Whereas

i. _____ Firm inter-alia is engaged in the business of providing Secretarial services to various business entities in India.

ii. PNB has agreed to disclose, transmit, receive, and/or exchange certain “confidential information” to cover the business transaction between parties for the provision of services related to the secretarial assignment (“the Purpose”) issued by PNB in favor of _____

In the course of such discussions and negotiations, it is anticipated that either party may disclose or deliver to the other party certain of its trade secrets or confidential or proprietary information for the purpose of enabling the other party to evaluate the feasibility of such a business relationship.

The parties have entered into this Agreement, in order to assure the confidentiality of such trade secrets and confidential and proprietary information in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

As used in this Agreement, the party disclosing Confidential and Proprietary Information (as defined below) is referred to as the 'Disclosing Party' and will include its affiliates and subsidiaries, the party receiving such Confidential and Proprietary Information is referred to as the 'Recipient', and will include its affiliates and subsidiaries.

Now this Agreement witnesseth: -

1. Interpretation

In this Agreement "Confidential Information" means all information belonging to a Party that is or has been disclosed to one Party (the "Receiving Party") by the other Party (the "Disclosing Party") in connection with the business transacted/ to be transacted between the Parties. Confidential information shall also include any copy, abstract, extract, sample, note or module thereof. The Receiving Party may use the Confidential Information solely for and in connection with the business transacted/ to be transacted between the Parties. The term 'confidential information' shall include all written or oral information (including information received from third parties that the 'Disclosing Party' is obligated to treat as confidential) that is (i) clearly identified in writing at the time of disclosure as confidential and in case of oral or visual disclosure, or (ii) that a reasonable person at the time of disclosure reasonably would assume, under the circumstances, to be confidential. Confidential information shall also include, without limitation, software programs, technical data, methodologies, know-how, processes, designs, new products, developmental work, marketing requirements, marketing plans, customer names, prospective customer names, customer information and business information of the 'Disclosing Party'.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, "Confidential Information" shall not include any information which the Receiving Party can show: (a) is now or subsequently becomes or is in possession of the Receiving Party, legally and publicly available without breach of this Agreement by the Receiving Party, (b) was rightfully in the possession of the Receiving Party without any obligation of confidentiality prior to receiving it from the Disclosing Party, (c) was rightfully obtained by the Receiving Party from a source other than the Disclosing Party without any obligation of confidentiality, (d) was developed by or for the Receiving Party independently and without reference to any Confidential Information and such independent development can be shown by documentary evidence, or (e) is disclosed pursuant to an order of a court or governmental agency as so required by such order, provided that the Receiving Party shall, unless prohibited by law or regulation, promptly notify the Disclosing Party of such order and afford the Disclosing Party the opportunity to seek appropriate protective order relating to such disclosure.

2. Proprietary Information: As used in this Agreement, the term 'Proprietary Information' shall mean all trade secrets or confidential or proprietary technical, financial, personal and intellectual property rights and other rights related information of the Disclosing Party, whether by letter or by the use of an appropriate prominently placed proprietary stamp or legend or which is otherwise apparent or covered by the definition, prior to or at the time such trade secret or confidential or Proprietary Information is disclosed by the Disclosing Party to the Recipient. Notwithstanding the foregoing, information which is orally or visually disclosed to the recipient by the Disclosing Party or is disclosed in writing unaccompanied by a covering letter, proprietary stamp or legend, shall constitute proprietary information if the Disclosing Party, within 10 (ten) days after such disclosure, delivers to the Recipient a written document or documents describing such Proprietary Information and referencing the place and date of such oral, visual or written disclosure and the names of the employees or officers of the Recipient to whom such disclosure was made. The Proprietary Information shall include, but not be limited to, domain names, trade secrets, copyrights, ideas, techniques, know-how, inventions (whether patentable or not), and/or any other information of any type relating to designs, configurations, documentation, policies, board notes, Circulars, recorded data, schematics, layouts, source code, master works, master databases, algorithms, flow charts, formulae, works of authorship, mechanisms, research, manufacture, improvements, assembly, installation, intellectual property, and the information concerning the Parties' actual or anticipated business, research or development, or which is received in confidence by the disclosing party to the Recipient.

3. Confidentiality:

Each party shall keep secret and treat in strictest confidence all Proprietary and Confidential Information it has received about the other party or its customers and will not use the Confidential and Proprietary Information otherwise than for the purpose of performing its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with its terms and so far as may be required for the proper exercise of the Parties' respective rights under this Agreement.

4. Non-Disclosure of Proprietary and Confidential Information:

For the period during the Agreement or its renewal, the Recipient will:

- (a) Use such Confidential and Proprietary Information only for the purpose for which it was disclosed and without prior written authorization of the Disclosing Party shall not use or exploit such Proprietary Information for its own benefit or the benefit of others.
- (b) Protect the Confidential and Proprietary Information against disclosure to third parties in the same manner and with the reasonable degree of care, with which it protects its Proprietary Information of similar importance: and (c) Limit disclosure of Confidential and Proprietary Information received under this Agreement to persons within its organization and to those 3rd party contractors performing tasks that would otherwise customarily or routinely be performed by its employees, who have a need to know such Confidential and Proprietary Information in the course of performance of their duties and who are bound to protect the confidentiality of such Proprietary Information.

5. Limit on Obligations:

The obligations of the Recipient specified in clause 3 above shall not apply and the Recipient shall have no further obligations, with respect to any Confidential and Proprietary Information to the extent that such Confidential and Proprietary Information:

- a) is generally known to the public at the time of disclosure or becomes generally known without any wrongful act on the part of the Recipient,
- b) is in the Recipient's possession at the time of disclosure otherwise than as a result of the Recipient's breach of a legal obligation;
- c) becomes known to the Recipient through disclosure by any other source, other than the Disclosing Party, having the legal right to disclose such Confidential and Proprietary Information.
- d) Is independently developed by the Recipient without reference to or reliance upon the Confidential and Proprietary Information; or
- e) Is required to be disclosed by the Recipient to comply with applicable laws or governmental regulation, provided that the recipient provides prior written notice of such disclosure to the Disclosing Party and takes reasonable and lawful actions to avoid and/or minimize the extent of such disclosure.

6. Return of Documents:

The Recipient shall, upon the request of the Disclosing Party, in writing, return to the Disclosing Party all drawings, documents and other tangible manifestations of Confidential and Proprietary Information received by the Recipient pursuant to this Agreement (and all copies and reproductions thereof) within a reasonable period. Each party agrees that in the event it is not inclined to proceed further with the engagement, business discussions and negotiations, or in the event of termination of this Agreement, the Recipient party will promptly return to the other party or with the consent of the other party, destroy the Confidential and Proprietary Information of the other party. Either party shall be free to use the residuals resulting from access to or work with the other party's Proprietary Information for any purpose; however, the Recipient shall not disclose the Confidential and Proprietary Information except as permitted pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. The term "residuals" means information in intangible form, retained in the memory of persons employed or retained by the Recipient who have had access to or worked with the Confidential and Proprietary Information, including ideas, concepts, know-how or techniques contained therein. Recipient shall not have any obligation to limit or restrict the assignment of such persons or to pay royalties for any work resulting from the use of residuals; provided, however, that this Section shall not be deemed to grant to Recipient a license under any copyright or patent of the Disclosing Party.

7. Communications:

Written communications requesting or transferring Confidential and Proprietary Information under this Agreement shall be addressed only to the respective designees as follows (or to such designees as the parties hereto may from time to time designate in writing)

In the event that any of the provisions contained in this Agreement is found to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect by a Court of competent jurisdiction, the validity, legality, or enforceability of the remaining provisions contained in this agreement will not be in any way affected or impaired by such a finding.

17. Notices

Notices as required by this Agreement shall be sent to the Parties at the addresses mentioned first herein above or such other addresses as the Parties may designate from time to time, and shall be sent by certified or registered mail with acknowledgement due on receipt.

18. Delay or Waiver

No delay or failure of either Party in exercising any right hereunder and no partial or single exercise thereof shall be deemed of itself to constitute a waiver or an expectation of non-enforcement of such right or any other rights hereunder. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement shall be valid unless the same is in writing and signed by the party against whom such waiver is sought to be enforced. A waiver or consent given by either party on any one occasion is effective only in that instance and will not be construed as a bar to or waiver of any right on any other occasion.

19. Governing Law

The provisions of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India and shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of courts in Delhi.

20. Indemnity

The Firm shall indemnify the Bank from any and all claims including third party claims, causes of action, suits, damages or demands, whatsoever, arising out of breach of this Agreement by the indemnifying party as and when such claims, actions, damages or demands becomes payable.

21. Modification

Modification to any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be void unless it is writing and duly executed by Parties.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have agreed, accepted and acknowledged and signed these presents, on the day, month and year mentioned herein above.
