Punjab National Bank (PNB), nation's leading public sector bank, on Sunday celebrated the 76th Republic Day with fervour and enthusiasm at its headquarters in New Delhi. The celebration commenced with PNB MD & CEO Ashok Chandra unfurling the National Flag in the presence of Executive Directors, CVO, CGMs, and senior officials of the Bank. Speaking on the occasion, Ashok Chandra, MD & CEO, PNB, said, "On this momentous occasion of the 76th Republic Day, I extend my heartfelt congratulations to every Indian. As we reminisce about our journey to freedom, we are reminded of the historic moment when India, under the visionary leadership of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, drafted a Constitution in 1949, laying the foundation for our sovereignty and fundamental rights. Today, as we honour the sacrifices of our heroes and the valour of our soldiers protecting the borders, let us also commit ourselves to building a developed India by 2047, when we celebrate 100 years of independence. From being underdeveloped to a developing nation, we are now on a determined path towards becoming a developed economy with a projected GDP of $30 trillion by 2047. This transformative journey presents a monumental opportunity for public sector banks like PNB to play a pivotal role.

Punjab National Bank (PNB), one of India's leading public sector banks, celebrated the 76th Republic Day with great enthusiasm at its headquarters in New Delhi. The celebrations began with the MD & CEO, Shri Ashok Chandra, unfurling the National Flag, joined by the Executive Directors, Chief Vigilance Officer (CVO), Chief General Managers (CGMs), and other senior officials of the Bank.

Addressing the gathering, Shri Ashok Chandra extended his heartfelt wishes to all Indians and reflected on the nation's remarkable journey since the adoption of the Constitution in 1949. He emphasized the role of public sector banks like PNB in driving India's development towards becoming a $30 trillion economy by 2047. Shri Chandra highlighted the Bank's commitment to financial inclusion, particularly in rural and semi-urban areas, and urged the PNB family to focus on bridging gaps in access to financial services through flagship initiatives like PM Vishwakarma Loan and PM SVANidhi.

He added, "Let us pledge to strengthen our commitment to financial inclusion, bringing affordable and accessible banking services to every Indian household, and contribute to building a developed and equitable India."
