PNB and Assam Rifles sign MoU for the “PNB Rakshak Plus Scheme”

Punjab National Bank (PNB), the nation's top public sector bank, has inked a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Assam Rifles, the oldest paramilitary force of the country, to deliver specially designed banking products to the military personnel through the bank's flagship scheme “PNB Rakshak Plus”. This scheme covers personal accident insurance, air accident insurance for members of the military forces who are now serving, have retired, or are in training, as well as for the central armed police forces, state police forces, metro police, and retired defence pensioners. The agreement was signed today between Colonel P S Singh, Col (A), Headquarters, Directorate General, Assam Rifles, and Shri Sunil Soni, Chief General Manager of PNB, at the Assam Rifles Headquarters in Shillong.
