Consumer Non- Durables	15.33%	-4.4	-3.1	3.2	0.5

Views:

- As there is growth in capital and infrastructure/construction output which clearly indicate an investment upcycle in the economy.
- The signals of recovery in domestic consumption is still to be clear as the output of consumer durable goods are showing decline.
- Now the way forward will depend upon the course of action adopted by the RBI in its upcoming Monetary Policy.
