Punjab National Bank (PNB) has urged its customers to update their "Know Your Customer" (KYC) details by January 23, 2025. This is in line with the Reserve Bank of India's (RBI) guidelines.

The update is required for customers whose accounts were due for KYC verification as of September 30, 2024.

Customers must provide updated information such as identity proof, address proof, recent photo, PAN/Form 60, income proof, and mobile number.

The update can be done at any branch or through PNB ONE/Internet Banking Services (IBS).

Customers can also send the required details via registered email or post to their base branch.

Failure to update KYC by the deadline may result in restrictions on account operations.
